13-160 Purpose.

The city council desires to regulate the activities of peddlers, solicitors and canvassers within the city in a manner so as to protect against fraudulent and criminal activity and to ensure to the city's residents the maximum amount of privacy and security in their homes that is permissible in light of recent court decisions mandating certain types and amounts of access to residents and residential areas by peddlers, solicitors and canvassers. It is, therefore, the intent of the city council in enacting this chapter to recognize the potential for fraudulent and criminal activity in connection with door-to-door peddling, soliciting and similar activities, as well as the unique character and nature of the city's residential neighborhoods, while providing opportunity for peddlers, solicitors and canvassers as mandated by law. This chapter should be interpreted so as to be in conformity with relevant state and federal court decisions including, but not limited to, Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, Inc. v. Village of Stratton, 536 U.S. 150, 122 S. Ct. 2080, 153 L. Ed. 2d 205 (2002).
